

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE, SATURDAY, JANUARY 10, 1880.

SHORT SESSION OF THE HOUSE.

A BILL TO BELIEVE COLORED EMIGRANTS—REMOVING POLITICAL DISABILITIES—A NUMBER OF PRIVATE BILLS PASSED.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9. 1880

A resolution, which was adopted, was offered by Mr. WHITHORNE (Dem., Tenn.), editor of the Secretary of the Navy for information as to the rules prescribed for the guidance of naval vessels at sea, and as to what measures should be taken to establish a system of international rules which should apply to all naval and merchant vessels at sea.

Mr. O'CONNOR (Dem., S. C.) presented a petition for the passage of the bill returning to the freedom of the South the amount of their savings in the Freedmen's Trust Company. Referred.

Mr. HAYES (Rep., Ill.) introduced a bill granting a pension to each member of the Mexican War who did not receive it under the late Rebellion. Referred.

Mr. KAN (Rep., Kan.) introduced a bill for the relief of colored emigrants, and asked for its early consideration. It provides for the admitting free of cost of clothing and other articles destined for the benefit of colored men who have emigrated from One State to another.

Mr. F. WOOD (Dem., N. Y.) said that the Committee on Ways and Means had that subject under consideration, and would report upon it next week. The bill was referred.

Mr. BRAGG (Dem., Wis.) chairman of the Committee on War Claims, introduced a bill for the payment of certain claims. Printed and transmitted.

Bills were passed removing the political disabilities of W. S. Maxwell, of Tennessee; Wm. Sharp, of Virginia, and Wm. H. Parker, of Maryland.

Mr. WILSON (Rep., N. C.) moved to adjourn, and the SPEAKER, while sympathizing with the gentleman's object, ruled that it was out of order to do so, unless it could be shown that it would change the bill into a motion.

A large number of pension bills were reported from the Committee on Invalid Pensions and placed on the calendar.

At the expiration of the morning hour the House went into Committee of the Whole (Mr. Cox, of New-York, in the chair) on the private calendar.

At 3:30 p.m. the Committee rose, and reported bills for the relief of colored seamen; Samuel Lord, Jr., colored House employee; Robert Erwin, Catharine J. Gibbs, of New-York; Thomas Lauton, of Michigan, and Calvin Branson, of Ohio.

Mr. MONEY (Dem., Miss.) offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling on the Postmaster-General for information as to the effect of clauses 4 and 5 of section 232 of the postal laws.

The House then, at 3:45 p.m., adjourned until Monday.

NAVY ORDERS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9.—Lieutenant Eugene D. Hull is ordered to duty at the Naval Academy.

Passed-Assistant Surgeon F. Pitt Simons, at the Naval Hospital, at Yokohama, Japan, is ordered, in addition to his present duties, to report to the American Consul at Kamakura for duty under the act of June 2, 1878, to prevent the introduction of contagious and infectious diseases.

Assistant-Postmaster A. K. Meeker is ordered to the trial of Portsmouth at Washington.

Post-Assistant Paymaster John W. Jordan is detached from the training ship Portsmouth on the reporting of his relief, and assigned to the same duty.

The Sparta, the new gunboat has received a communication from Commander Playing of the United States steamer Kearsarge, dated St. Jago de Cuba, December 17, 1879, which reports the arrival of the Kearsarge at the port of Callao, Peru, on the 13th instant, and the White Wing. No information could be obtained. The commander states further that he found everything quiet at St. Jago, and that the Kearsarge had been there about two weeks, having about 20,000 men in that neighborhood, mostly negroes, poorly armed, with little ammunition.

First-Lieutenant P. A. Armstrong is ordered to the trial of Portsmouth on the 10th instant.
